The script was written by John Logan, Neal Purvis and Robert Wade. More information about the theme: Skyfall theme is a themed pack with six high quality wallpapers for the desktop. It can be easily installed and set up, even by users with no experience in software programs. The full HD wallpapers are fully customizable. The users can control the settings of the entire set of pictures by using the Control Panel option. Installation: You can install Skyfall theme by pressing on the Install button from the Skyfall Theme folder. On Mac OS and Linux systems, the theme pack comes with the Help file which explains the correct use of the desktop. After installation, the theme should show up on the Themes list, accessible from the Control Panel option. The app is rather basic and does not come with a built-in sound scheme. To change it, the user should open the Control Panel area from the panel menu. To the left of the Control Panel there is the option to change the wallpaper's settings. To access the full list of options, you need to click on the Screen List option from the panel menu. The available settings include: Centered – If this option is activated, the images will appear centered on the screen, with the default setting being centered. Fill – If this option is activated, the images will completely fill the entire desktop. Stretch – If this option is activated, the images will be stretched to fit the screen. Tile – If this option is activated, the images will be tiled, with the default setting being tiled. The theme pack: Skyfall theme contains six high-quality wallpapers in the full HD resolution (1920 x 1200 pixels), which is capable of fitting all screen types, regardless of their size. The themes are divided into the following groups: Gold – Gold is a very light and pretty wallpaper, which can be used for wallpapers with a light colour scheme. Rose – Rose is a very dark and beautiful wallpaper, which is perfect for colour schemes with a dark or romantic

You are tasked with dropping colored papers, later identified as different shapes, in a predetermined path while avoiding hitting the black paper pieces. You have ten points to spend on drops, with each point giving you less time to complete the level. Try not to spend too much time in a level, or your time will be reduced by one point. You have to spend at least one second to free the next stage and for this to happen, you must drop one of the colored paper pieces in a specific point of the path. When you are in the penalty zone, the screen goes black and you have to wait for a fixed amount of time. This game is not
