The Forgotten (film) The Forgotten () is a 2008 French-Argentinian thriller film directed by Bruno Olmido and co-produced with Frédéric Lamy. It stars Tomer Sisley as the eponymous protagonist, a young man in Buenos Aires who becomes entangled in an extended conflict between terrorists and a narcotics gang. The screenplay was written by Boris Mironov, Hugo Peretti, Bruno Olmido and Sebastián Ortega. It is a co-production with Argentina. Plot Ramón, an amnesic who works as a mechanic for a taxi company in Buenos Aires, is being blackmailed by his past: he was part of a gang of people led by a woman called "Blanca", who killed his mother and two of his friends. Ramón is now being blackmailed by a man called Luis who wants to force him to kill Blanca to complete the gang's hit-list. As Ramón refuses to complete the job, the gang moves onto him and his girlfriend, Anita. One night Ramón is attacked by a 570a42141b
