Also, go to Import > File Types in the Import dialog and double click on the JPEG file type to edit it. From there, add the filename extension, and make sure it has no space on the filename, and that it's "All files". A: Never open that file type before importing your images. If you do, you'll lose the images you've already got in your LR catalogue. More info: Without a doubt, Newsstand is the best and most efficient way to manage your subscriptions and News, especially as a news junkie. However, sometimes having to search and find the specific articles you want is a pain. Either that or you'll end up sharing articles with the entire family and everyone will end up going through the same articles. With all of the subscriptions to articles and RSS feeds across different websites, Newsstand looks to be the best way to make sure you never miss a thing. How does Newsstand work? You can manage your subscriptions and read through your articles in one easy to view interface. Newsstand allows you to manage your subscriptions all in one place. When you create a Subscription or RSS Feed, Newsstand will automatically notify you if there's any new activity on that subscription or feed. You can unsubscribe from those same subscriptions or RSS feeds at any time. What can I do with 82138339de
