Welcome to Home Town Vendor Market, South Florida's favorite destination for local flavor, artistic flair, and handcrafted quality. As an independent handmade goods market, Home Town Vendor Market connects small business vendors from all walks of life in a marketplace focused on creativity, community, and small business.

Our market is not just a place to shop, it is a celebration of incredible craft and extraordinary talent from the local community. When you walk into our indoor or outdoor vendor marketplaces, you will be welcomed to a multitude of independent artisans and makers, who take pride in their creations.

At Home Town Vendor Market, we represent small business vendors and makers who put hard work and dedication into every item they produce. From hand poured candles, to locally sourced gourmet treats, hand crafted jewelry, personalized gifts and custom home décor. Every product has a story. We believe in the power of handcrafted goods - that items are not just made, but made with love and intention. That will be the difference for Home Town Vendor Market as the premier handmade goods marketplace in South Florida.

We believe we are a bridge between small businesses and the community. We help to provide a comfortable environment where shoppers can not only discover products but also meet and connect with the people behind the brand. Supporting small business vendors contributes to the local economy and builds community while supporting sustainability. Every dollar you spend at Home Town Vendor Market is helping an entrepreneur who is trying to make their dreams happen, and it is someone who is passionate about what they do.

Our vendor markets are organized and managed in a way that provides a friendly and festive family environment that attracts local and tourists alike. There are curated booths that are filled with one-of-a-kind treasures, live entertainment, and tasty food and drink by some of the most exciting culinary entrepreneurs in South Florida. It is a sensory experience – a full day out that contributes to local creativity and innovation.

Home Town Vendor Market holds vendor market events all year around and throughout South Florida. We make it easier for you to discover and support talented small business vendors in your community, and we are always working to expand our reach by finding new locations and new vendors to keep our markets fresh, diverse, and inclusive. All vendors at our events are also on a rotating schedule, so you can explore and discover something new each time you come to the market and hopefully fall in love with it.

We are immensely proud to be a platform that recognizes and celebrates artisan goods, in addition to helping local businesses grow. Many of our vendors have utilized the Home Town Vendor Market as a launch point, receiving exposure, building customer relations, and even scaling into full-time businesses. New makers and established makers alike rely on our marketplace for community building, marketing, and brand building.

If you are looking for a handmade goods marketplace that truly celebrates craftsmanship and community, welcome to Home Town Vendor Market. We are a community of authenticity, heart, and creativity - from where passion projects spring to life, and shoppers find more than products, they find connections.

We want to share the experience of shopping small + local! Meet the makers, see the variety of products, and join South Florida's growing support of artisans and their entrepreneurship! Whether you are a vendor looking to join the meaningful community of Home Town Vendor Market or a customer wanting to find truly unique items, we look forward to seeing you!
